

5 Most Important (& Most Valuable) Things You Will Miss Out On IF You Refuse to Change

by Patti Hathaway, CSP

1. You'll miss out on the potential for career opportunities with the new or newly re-organized organization. Your company is looking for forward thinking change agents. As a change agent, you'll have the opportunity to be viewed as a valuable contributor and one who will have a place in the organization.
2. You'll miss out on the chance to learn new skills that can make you more marketable. Get used to feeling incompetent and confused for a time in order to learn new skills, which will help you in the future.
3. You'll get smarter. There is scientific proof that changing our patterns and ways of doing things creates new neural pathways, which make you smarter.
4. You'll miss out on the opportunity to expand your network and your ability to develop new relationships. Keep in mind; it's not what you know but who you know that matters.
5. You'll miss out on the possibility of shaping your destiny and reality. If you get on board quickly with the changes, you may be able to create a need and select a team to help you fill the need. Be purposeful as you explore your options.
